

Thanksgiving Weekend Family Programming Friday and Saturday, November 27 and 28

TIME	EVENT	LOCATION	DESCRIPTION
Friday, November 27
11 a.m. – 4 p.m.	Backyard BBQ Buffet	Slopeside Restaurant	Adults are $14.95; 8-12 are $9.95; 4-7 are $5.95 Chef carved roast beef, BBQ baby back ribs, fried chicken, corn on the cob, Ranch baked beans, macaroni & cheese, salad table, fruit pies, cookies and brownies.
11 a.m. – 3 p.m.	Activities	Convention Hall	Wii games, face painting, fall tattoos, word searches, fall crafts, coloring sheets and more.
11 a.m.	Unisphere Planetarium	Convention Hall	The night sky comes to you in a portable, inflatable planetarium as the Carnegie Science Center presents Map to the Stars. The program highlights tools and tricks to find constellations in our star-studded galaxy. (30 people max)
Noon	Liquid Nitrogen Ice Cream Demonstration	Convention Hall	A demonstration on how liquid nitrogen is used in food preparation and other ways. Ice cream can be made using liquid nitrogen you can taste it too. Presented by the Carnegie Science Center.
1 p.m.	Pumpkin Pass	Convention Hall	Children sit in a circle and pass the pumpkin while music plays. When the music stops, the person holding the pumpkin is out.
1:30 p.m.	Bingo	Convention Hall	Picture bingo for the kids with a Thanksgiving theme.
2 p.m.	Pumpkin Pass	Convention Hall	Children sit in a circle and pass the pumpkin while music plays. When the music stops, the person holding the pumpkin is out.
2 p.m.	Unisphere Planetarium	Convention Hall	The night sky comes to you in a portable, inflatable planetarium as the Carnegie Science Center presents Map to the Stars. The program highlights tools and tricks to find constellations in our star-studded galaxy. (30 people max)
2:30 p.m.	Liquid Nitrogen Ice Cream Demonstration	Convention Hall	A demonstration on how ice cream can be made using liquid nitrogen, and tasting too. Presented by the Carnegie Science Center.
3:30 p.m.	Pumpkin Pie Eating Contest	Convention Hall	See who can gobble down a piece of pumpkin pie the fastest – no hands! For boys and girls 12 and under and limited to 10 in each category. Sign up the day of in Convention Hall.
4 - 11 p.m.	Roller Skating	Exhibit Hall	Free skating and rentals
7:30 - 8:30 p.m.	Family Pool Party	Indoor Pool	Relay races, water games and fun for all. No charge.
8 p.m.	Family Movie	Dogwood Forum	Complimentary movie and popcorn

TIME	EVENT	LOCATION	DESCRIPTION
Saturday, November 28
11 a.m. – 3 p.m.	Activities	Convention Hall	Wii games, face painting, fall tattoos, word searches, fall crafts, coloring sheets and more.
11 a.m.	Unisphere Planetarium	Convention Hall	The night sky comes to you in a portable, inflatable planetarium as the Carnegie Science Center presents Mythology: Star Stories. Stories of Ancient Greek, Roman, and Native American myths tell of brave hunters, beastly battles and more. (30 people max)
12 p.m.	Balancing Snowmen	Convention Hall	Heavy weight paper, 2 washers and tape create a perfectly weighted snowman that will balance on the tip of your finger. Presented by the Carnegie Science Center.
1 p.m.	Pumpkin Pass	Convention Hall	Children sit in a circle and pass the pumpkin while music plays. When the music stops, the person holding the pumpkin is out.
1:30 p.m.	Bingo	Convention Hall	Picture bingo for the kids with a Thanksgiving theme.
2 p.m.	Pumpkin Pass	Convention Hall	Children sit in a circle and pass the pumpkin while music plays. When the music stops, the person holding the pumpkin is out.
2 p.m.	Unisphere Planetarium	Convention Hall	The night sky comes to you in a portable, inflatable planetarium as the Carnegie Science Center presents Mythology: Star Stories. Stories of Ancient Greek, Roman, and Native American myths tell of brave hunters, beastly battles and more. (30 people max)
2:30 p.m.	Balancing Snowmen	Convention Hall	Heavy weight paper, 2 washers and tape create a perfectly weighted snowman that will balance on the tip of your finger. Presented by the Carnegie Science Center.
3:30 p.m.	Pumpkin Pie Eating Contest	Convention Hall	See who can gobble down a piece of pumpkin pie the fastest – no hands! For boys and girls 12 and under and is limited to 10 in each category. Sign up the day of in Convention Hall.
4 - 11 p.m.	Roller Skating	Exhibit Hall	Free skating and rentals
8 p.m.	Family Movie	Dogwood Forum	Complimentary movie and popcorn