A prominent yellow trail winds through the forest on the left, while several red trails descend the steeper, more open slopes on the right. A small town or village is visible at the top left. In the bottom right corner, there is a black logo with the text 'DEW AFTER DARK' in white, with 'DEW' in a larger, stylized font. PENNSYLVANIA STATUTE 42 PA.C.S § 7102 COMPARATIVE NEGLIGENCE

(a) General rule. -- In all actions brought to recover damages for negligence resulting in death or injury to person or property, the fact that the plaintiff may have been guilty of contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery by the plaintiff or his legal representative where such negligence was not greater than the causal negligence of the defendant or defendants against whom recovery is sought, but any damages sustained by the plaintiff shall be diminished in proportion to the amount of negligence attributed to the plaintiff.

(c) Downhill skiing.--

(1) The General Assembly finds that the sport of downhill skiing is practiced by a large number of citizens of this Commonwealth and also attracts to this Commonwealth large numbers of nonresidents significantly contributing to the economy of this Commonwealth. It is recognized that as in some other sports, there are inherent risks in the sport of downhill skiing.

(2) The doctrine of voluntary assumption of risk as it applies to downhill skiing injuries and damages is not modified by subsections (a) and (a.1).
